

75 Hours Basic Home Care Aide Training

What are the training requirements for new Caregivers?

New Caregivers need to complete 75 hours of basic training and then test to become certified . At the end of this process, students will have an active, "Home Care Aide Certification," or "HCA-C."

Where to Begin....

Step #1: Review our monthly training calendars either on our website or in-person to decide which class sessions work best for your schedule.

Step #2: Enroll in your courses by paying for them. Enrollments for online training done directly at www.sunriseclasses.talentlms.com. Online Training is available to take 24 hours a day. On-site training can be enrolled for in-person, by phone, or on main website: www.sunrisecaregivertraining.com & click, "enroll now." Sessions can be done in any order.

Step #3: Complete the DOH application to apply for your HCA credential.

Step #4: Attend your 75 hours of basic training. Get 1 certificate of completion when all done.

Step #5 Pass your State exam and become HCA-C. Time to celebrate!
